

haegeprojectnetworks

project development in the south german region stuttgart – baden-neckaralb – remstal hrprojectnetworks

employee development in the south german region stuttgart - baden - neckaralb - remstal gerald haege

diplom-kaufmann

born 1967 in stuttgart, bad kannstatt. after having completed the studies of business administration at tuebingen university, gerald haege started his professional career in 1996. he was in responsible positions in various industrial plants, always linked to internationally operating multinational groups. moreover he was working in the international project-management landscape. gerald haege has contributed with his teams as hr-manager/director and as business-administration-manager to the successful development of a medical devices manufacturer. his expertise in industrial assignments and consultancy is spanning all phases in medium sized, technology driven companies. today he serves as a freelancer-scientist focusing on prognosis and simulation. He maintains cooperation-relationship with well-known professors from tuebingen university and the htw dresden. additionally there is a decent network of recognized investors available.

simulation and prognosis partner for technology driven, mid-sized industry for continued improvement of business-process, capital, investments, bank and insurance, logistics value generation through pre-defined modular services pc-support (software/hardware) support of students' development interim-services

eventmanagement

complete and practically-proven portfolio of pre-defined services for all business-administration-project-management challenges. perfect network.

contact:

please contact us under:

mobile: +49 (0) 176 3888 4892

e-mail: g.haege@hpnbboost.com www.hpnbboost.com